

THE PATH. The Path is the initiation into the right way of living, the (true) religious living, the proper conduct, as we go through life. This essay has at its core the text attributed to Krishnamurti, 'At the feet of the Master', written when he was fourteen years old. The principles of The Path are similarly at the base of all religions, before they were corrupted by hierarchy, dogmas and scriptures. They compel the seeker of knowledge to live honorably and truthfully, with bearing in their heart love and compassion for all of humankind.
